B O S T O N .
JOURNAL of the TIMES.

Jan. 30. COURT of admiralty again sat for examining the libels against Mr. Hancock, &c. It may perhaps be tedious to meet with these accounts so often in this Journal; how grievous then to the subject, to be obliged with his council to dance—such attendance; must it not excite indignation in every American to be told, that a number of gentlemen shall by order of the C—m—rs be libelled for about £.50,000 sterling, and held under bail thus long, when it appears that this was done without their having any proof of the matter of charge in their hands, but that the libels were ordered to be laid, with design further to harass and distress a most amiable and useful member of society, and in hopes that some evidences would be fish'd up in the court of a lengthy trial, which might support those libels.

The C—m—rs affect to mimic high life, not only in their dress, attendance and in rolling from house to house in their chariots the best of weather; but by an attempt to invert the order of nature; in turning day into night and night into day—one or two o'clock has been the hour for dining in this town, time out of mind; the C—m—rs have pitched upon four o'clock as a more courtly hour, and it cannot but excite ridicule to perceive G—r, L. G—r S—y, &c. sacrificing their dignity together with their appetites and health in conforming to these mushroom gentry. The following anecdote may serve to give the public an idea of what these people term easy living,—a lady of character before the C—m—rs retired to the castle, made a visit to one of their ladies, between the hours of four and five o'clock; the visited came into the room, praying the visitor to seat herself, and asking leave of absence to finish her dinner; sometime after she returned, and before the city lady departed she was led to understand that Mr. C—m—r had engaged company who would come at eleven o'clock, to spend the evening with him. The unpoliteness of the city lady in breaking in upon a neighbour thus early, was not a little diverting to our stranger, and among other tea table chat soon after, she could not help observing, that one of the natives, awful creature! as she called him, had made a visit before five o'clock. At the time she was making her remarks, that they must be snuffily brought to the time of dining, to conform to the natives, in order to prevent such unseasonable interruptions.

Jan. 31. At the court of sessions now sitting a number of soldiers for hailing, stopping and assaulting the inhabitants, have been tried upon the bills brought against them by the last grand jury, found guilty and fined—our young A—y G—l was pleased to enter a non prosequi upon a bill against some soldiers for stopping and detaining several gentlemen who would not answer to the challenges of the guards; which bill he had refused drawing for the jury, alledging that no assault had been actually made upon them.—The persons indicted had been bound over to this court, by an old magistrate, learned in the law, to whom they had confessed the facts they were charged with. This Magistrate being on the bench animadverted with freedom and spirit upon the conduct of the A—y G—l, who though only a council for the crown, should take upon him in so unusual a manner, to controul the law before he had taken the opinion of those who were appointed the judges. Our A—y G—l, who is also a Juste Ad— for the crown, was fearfully known a lawyer till those offices were conferred on him by a G—r, who has also through the C—p—n of the times been able to procure him a salary of £.600 sterl. per annum! as a reward for certain services. If such A—y's, without consulting the bench shall wantonly enter his non prosequi upon bills found by a Grand jury; and on the other hand, only by information and complaint, cause a subject to be harassed with a trial after a bill had been refused; and this trial before judges who are not only appointed during pleasure, but also prosequi; we say if these things can be done without violence to the constitution, our good G—m— may then make himself perfectly easy, though he should not be able to obtain his wish, that the return of juries should not be made as they have been, by the several times in the province, but by seizures of his own appointment.

Last evening between nine and ten, a fire broke out in the gaol in this town, which notwithstanding the diligence and activity of the inhabitants was consumed, leaving nothing but the walls standing. It is said that one of the criminals in the prison wilfully set fire to it—the distress of the poor prisoners was great, the keeper of the gaol having in his fright mislaid his keys, divers of them were in imminent danger of perishing before they could be relieved, and some of them finally escaped very much burnt.—The picquet guard were ordered to attend this fire with their muskets and bayonets, and drew up in Queen-street opposite the gaol, but the officer of the guard being told by the firewards (a set of town officers who by the law of the province have the sole conduct on these occasions) that they could be of no assistance in that manner, but were rather an obstruction; that such an appearance was disgusting to the inhabitants; and that he must either draw his men off again, or they must assist in such a way as the firewards should direct, they retired to the main guard-house. After which the gentlemen of the army attended and offered the assistance of the soldiers unarmed, as did the navy officers that of the seamen, whose laudable activity and perseverance together with that of the inhabitants, prevented the spreading of the fire which through the whole night threatened great desolation in the very center of the town.

Jan. 3. Monday at a general council, the governor after informing them that he had been able to persuade his friend Chambers to consent to be an acting magistrate; he was pleased to nominate and appoint him a justice of the peace for the county of Suffolk; together with Robert Auchmuty, Esq; the late constituted judge of admiralty for this province.—As the knowledge of the law cometh not by inspiration, we may conjecture, that the sphere of action marked out for the commodore, has more relation to the law martial than the common law; Judge Auchmuty who is the fourth appointed reforming justice, is a sterling acquisition, and G—r B—d cannot but flatter himself that by the exertions of this meritorious and unobtrusive judge, the bench of justice will soon become agreeable to Lord H—gh and his reforming coadjutors, as any modern court of admiralty on the continent, we learn that before G. B. left the council chamber he could not help discovering how much he had been nettled, by some late publications; he hinted to some of the gentlemen, his surprise, that his propaganda, reasonings and conversations at the board, should so find the way out; and was pleased to intimate that in preventing it, their own honour would be consulted rather than his peace, as those publications gave him no personal uneasiness; we would only remark, that this speech of the G—r's evidences the exactness of our relations, and indeed the great enemy his public conduct has made him, could not better satisfy his revenge, than by setting it in its true point of light; the last deviation therefrom, must take off from that just detestation which as the Philadelphia Citizen expresses it, "this infamous G—r ought to be held in, not only by the citizens of Boston, and the inhabitants of the American colonies, but by every individual whose heart is animated with a single sentiment of liberty."

Feb. 2. The following paragraph has appeared in several of our news-papers, viz. "We hear from Londonderry in the province of New-Hampshire, that a sergeant and some soldiers having apprehended two deserters were surrounded on the road about 6 miles from the place where they first took them in custody, by 200 or 250 armed men, who obliged them to release their prisoners." This relation seems calculated to answer the purposes of a certain party among us; it is therefore necessary to set it right; we have before mentioned that a number of persons were strolling about the country in disguise, who were guilty of such impositions as might be productive of disagreeable consequences; the best and we believe true account of the above relation is; that two men strangers, were travelling into the country, and made Londonderry in their way. Soon after their arrival, four men in sailor's habits, entered the town, and in a boisterous manner seized the two strangers, and were carrying them away. This extraordinary behaviour of the four supposed sailors alarmed some of the inhabitants; and four men instead of one hundred and fifty mentioned, pursued them, determined to know the cause of their intrusion and violent measures; upon their overtaking the party, a parley ensued, and the prisoners were released. Had these four men in sailor's habits produced a warrant from any legal authority, to justify their proceedings, they would not have been opposed or prevented in the execution thereof: Or had they been soldiers, appeared in their proper regimentals, and published their business, due respect would have been paid to his Majesty's messengers; and if requested, necessary aid would have been granted: But if any of his Majesty's immediate servants, or any other persons, shall presume to enter a town disguised in such a manner as not to be known, and without any lawful authority violently seize upon and attempt to carry away, any of the proper inhabitants or even strangers cohabiting with them, such persons might reasonably expect opposition and without satisfaction suffer the consequence.

Feb. 3. A vessel that came from Madera about six weeks ago, which had been entered, and loading again for another voyage, was this day seized by order of the C—m—rs, and one of their officers placed in her who forbid the owner coming on board, without informing him of the pretence for the seizure. No foreign article, has yet been found in any vessel that has been seized or searched, interfering in the least with the manufacture of Great-Britain, but it seems the C—m—rs would have it, appear otherwise; the libel lately filed against the coasting vessel for having a barrel of wine found on board instead of vinegar, also mentions a trunk of silk, which upon enquiry only contains a few made up capuchins and other little articles sent from hence to the colonies. What damage to the mother country as well as the colonies, will the ignorance and malice of this naval B—d occasion.

From the PROVIDENCE (Rhode Island) GAZETTE, March 2, 1769.

Being a Spectator at the Sitting of the Assembly at Providence, I had an Opportunity of hearing the public Letters read. Among others, one in particular excited my Curiosity; I therefore took it down in Characters, from which I would the whole at large, and having heard the same read a second Time, you may be assured the following is a correct Copy. As it is of a pretty extraordinary Nature, you are requested to insert it in your useful Paper.

Gentlemen,

THE King having observed that the Governors of his Colonies have, upon several Occasions, taken upon them to communicate to their Councils and Assemblies, either the Whole or Parts of Letters which they have received from his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; I have it in Command from his Majesty to signify to you, that it is his Majesty's Pleasure, that you do not, upon any Pretence whatever, communicate to the Assembly any Copies or Extracts of such Letters as you shall receive from his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, unless you have his Majesty's particular Directions for so doing.

I am, Gentlemen, Your most obedient humble Servant,

Governor and Company of the Colony of Rhode-Island.

Whitcomb, September 2, 1768.

HILLSBOROUGH.

A C A R D.

THE Colonists present their compliments to Lord H—gh, to whose Care the A—m—n Department has been committed, and humbly request, that before his L—t proceeds to write any more erroneous L—t—s, he would make himself acquainted with the Constitution of the Colonies. His L—t's Ignorance, as appears by some of his M—t—l Mandates, has rendered him manifestly ridiculous; for Instance, in one of his curious L—t—s, his L—t gave Orders to the G—m—r of P—m—s—s, that in case the Assembly of that Province did not all conformably to his Pleasure, immediately to dissolve them; whereas it is an inherent Privilege of that House to sit on their own Adjournments, and not in the Power of any G—m—r to dissolve them. Other Instances might be produced, to show that his L—t has most egregiously blundered, these will appear evident to him self, when his L—t becomes acquainted with the Duties of his Office; but should any other erroneous L—t—s from his L—t be circulated, with unconstitutional Orders to the American G—m—rs, the Colonists will treat them with the Contempt they deserve.

The PARTNERSHIP of GODFREY & GADSDEN,

HAVING expired with the last Year, they return their Thanks to their Friends and Customers, for their Favours received, and being under a Necessity of closing their Concerns as soon as possible, they will be additionally obliged to those indebted to them to discharge the same this Crop, that they may be enabled to settle the Demands that may be against the Co-partnership. And as there is a very large Amount of Debts in open Accounts that have been long standing, they must insist on the same being paid, or otherwise suited to their Satisfaction, as a Neglect of so reasonable a Demand will be attended with disagreeable Consequences. Rice, Deer-Skins, and Indico, (such as we shall approve of) will be taken in Payment at the Market Price, if offered to us on its Arrival in Charles-Town. thctf.

THOMAS GADSDEN,

BEGS Leave to acquaint his Friends, that lately favoured him with their Custom and Assistance when in Partnership with Mr. Godfrey, that he intends to carry on Business in his own Name alone, after the close of this Year, and will therefore be much obliged to them for a Continuance of their Favours, as he will endeavour to keep a good Assortment of such Goods as are usually imported into this Province, which he is determined to sell at the most reasonable Rates, among those on Hand, he has printed Linens and Cottons, at 10s. and 15s a Yard, also a great variety of Linen Drapery Goods, at Nine for One Cash, by the Piece or Quantity.

Rice, Deer-Skins, and Indico, (such as he may approve of) will always be taken at the Market Price, in Payment for Accounts.—Who is in want of a good, clean, and orderly Cook, on hire, or to purchase. thctf.

JOHN LORD, Carver and Gilder,

Has imported in the PORTLAND, from LONDON,

A Good assortment of glasses of the most useful sizes; likewise a small collection of the very best plaster of Paris figures, busts and heads, bronzed and white, which will be sold very reasonable at his Shop in Meeting-street, nearly opposite to the Hon. Egerton Leigh, Esq; where carving and gilding in all their branches, both in the house and furniture way, are performed, viz. pier glasses of all kinds, chimney ditto, gerandoles, picture frames, console brackets for busts, &c. chimney pieces, capitals in all the orders, trusses, chair-case brackets, and mouldings; with all kinds of carving in the French, Chinese, and Gothic tastes, all which he will engage to execute in a workmanlike manner, on as low terms as possible.—Old gilding repaired, and glasses silvered.

WILLIAM LOOOCK,

Has imported in the last vessels from LONDON,

A Complete and general assortment of chymical, galenic, cal preparations and drugs, with mostly every family medicine now in use, among which are, the famous essence of JOHNSON or TURPETH ROOT, being a native of the remote parts of this province, and which is the most certain, easy and effectual medicine ever found in all venereal cases. Fifteen drops being taken morning and evening in a glass of water or any thing convenient, will most effectually root that disorder in a few days, and never leave any fleet or weeping after it, which is too often the case. It is likewise a most effectual medicine in all rheumatic complaints, leprosy, scurvy, old sores or ulcers, nay even in all cronical disorders; it will cure the yaws effectually in a few days, and will be sold on the most reasonable terms at his MEDICINAL WARE-HOUSE, in Broad-street.

For SALE, by private contract,

1808 T O N, MARCH 26.

Letters from all the Governors in America, from General
Sage, Commodore Hood, Colonel Dalrymple, and Captain Smith, have been laid before the House of Commons.

On Monday the 4th of February, between four and five o'clock in the morning, two considerable shocks of an earthquake were felt at Antigua, at about two seconds distance, attended with an aerial noise from E. to W.

The Speaker of the late House of Representatives for this Province, received the following Letter last Week.

North-Carolina, Newbern, 10th Nov. 1758.

Sir,

The E House of Assembly of this Colony being Prerogued to the 3^d Instant, prevented my former laying before them your important Letter of the 11th of February last, the Purport of which they proceeded immediately to take into their Consideration. And I am directed to inform you that they are extremely obliged to the Assembly of the Massachusetts-Bay, for communicating their Sentiments on so interesting a Subject, and that they are ready to unite with their Sister Colonies in pursuing every Constitutional Measure for Redress of the Grievances so justly complained of.

This House is desirous to cultivate the strictest Harmony and Friendship with the Assembly of the Colonies in general, and with your House in particular.

With you we entertain the strongest Confidence of his Majesty's Clemency and Justice; nor do we doubt but that the dutiful and united Supplications of his loyal American Subjects will meet with his most gracious Favour and Acceptance.

This House have therefore taken the earliest Opportunity permitted them of pursuing Measures for obtaining Redress similar to those adopted by your's; and have directed their Agent Henry Eustice McCulloch, Esq; to join the Agents of the other Colonies in obtaining a Repeal of those oppressive Acts of Parliament imposing Duties on Paper, Glass, &c. in America.

The Assembly of this Colony will at all Times receive with Pleasure the Opinion of your House in Matters of general Concern to America, and be equally willing on every such Occasion to communicate their Sentiments, not doubting of their meeting a candid and friendly Acceptance. In the Name and by Order of the House of Assembly.

I am, with great Regard,

Sir, Your most obedient humble Servant.

JOHN HARVEY, Speaker.

To the Hon. Thomas Cushing, Esq; late Speaker, &c.

GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor will secure 1500 acres, against the highest freshes; the high land is as good for corn or indigo as any in the province, and has on it a dwelling-house, out-house, a garden, and about 200 acres under good fence, and fit for plowing. There are also in the low grounds three sets of cyress indigo wats, pumps, &c. and 90 acres damed in, fit for planting, and may be plowed; said land is near Neilson's ferry, 60 miles from boats from 50 to 70 barrels of rice burden, are passing almost every week in the year.—A reasonable time for payment will be given, but considerable abatement for ready money or
